

Workshop Instructor

“Let’s have a Ball”

MARK SIMPKIN

The NSW Linedance Committee are excited to announce Mark Simpkin, who is the owner and instructor at Southern Cross Linedance, will be the Workshop instructor for the 2023 NSW Linedance Ball being held on the 15th April, 2023.

Southern Cross Linedancers are Celebrating 30 years in March 2023 and will Celebrate in grand style with many Instructors and students past and present. For more information visit <https://southerncrosslinedance.com>

Over the last 30 years Mark has choreographed hundreds of dances, some of them include Hell of a View, She Said Yes, The Blade, Angels, My Wish, Better as A memory, Seven Days, Cowboy and Clown, Cowboy Boots , Come Wake Me Up and Gypsy Lady. Mark has always supported and encouraged Australian Choreography.

Mark is an Award Winning Choreographer nominated for Australian Choreographer and Line Dance Teacher of the Year in 2018 and 2019.

Mark’s expertise is not only in choreography and instructing, he has also competed in various competitions, with his students, Australian wide , encouraging his students to join in and have fun!

Southern Cross have beginner, intermediate and advanced dance classes . There are 4 weekly beginner classes and 7 Intermediate classes across Sydney as well as 4 Socials a month.

Mark will have a special choreography for the Ball! Come along and join in this special event included in your Ball ticket.

Special THANKYOU to Mark for supporting the NSW Ball and Ronald McDonald House Charities, Greater Western Sydney.

Workshop : 5:15

Ball Starts at: 6pm